

Competition & Regulatory Economics

economics | research | forecasting | public policy

We provide premium competition and regulatory economics services to leading businesses, governments and lawyers

Our Expertise

Policy Design

Economic principles for law and regulation
Policy assessment and cost-benefit analysis

Competition Law

Economic analysis of competition and appropriate boundaries of conduct Competitive effects of vertical relationships
Analysis of mergers and acquisitions
Competition in network and platform markets

Regulatory Economics

Cost modelling and asset valuation
Efficient retail and access pricing
Incentives for investment and innovation

Examples of our Work

NZ Commerce Commission

Development and application of regulatory principles
Analysis of tax, depreciation and asset valuation issues for gas pipelines
Economic analysis of market power in rail and telecommunications

Government of Macau

Preparation of competition law principles for telecommunications

Vodafone NZ

Advice on mobile termination regulation, national roaming and colocation

Australian Competition & Consumer Commission

Expert evidence in a vertical merger case in electricity

Sky TV and Prime

Advice on the competitive implications of an acquisition in broadcasting

NZ Ministry of Economic Development

Analysis of the market for electricity hedges and ways to boost liquidity

Paymark

Economic modelling of competition among payments systems

Competition & Regulatory Economics Team

Dr John Small
Director
john.small@covec.co.nz
+64 9 916 1966

Dr Aaron Schiff
Director
aaron.schiff@covec.co.nz
+64 9 916 2012

Alexia Beer
Consultant
alexia.beer@covec.co.nz
+64 9 916 1968

Reuben Irvine
Consultant
reuben.irvine@covec.co.nz
+64 9 916 1967

www.covec.co.nz

covec>